

MEDICI WEBINAR Series:
5th episode: Children's rights in a digital world
– what's the evidence and why is it hard to apply?

17th September 2020, 12.00 CET

Guest speakers

Odete Severino, Expert in Human Rights and Children Rights (PT)

Sonia Livingstone, Researcher and Professor at the London School of Economics (UK)

Moderator

Miana Carneiro (MEDICI project)

You will learn about

How to protect children from online violence and abuse

Presentation of good practices and research results from the UK and France to reflect on children's rights and their protection in a digital environment.

AGENDA

12.00 - 12.10 (CET): Welcome – Introduction by Anna Tsiboukli

12.10 - 12.40: Presentation of research and good practice on child abuse in a digital environment

- Setting the scene: introduction to the topic
- Presentation of the main findings of the latest research on child abuse on the internet
- Balancing risks and opportunities

12.40 – 12.50: Questions and Answers

REGISTER HERE

Curious about our last WEBINAR? Check out HERE!